From Saturday January 26, to Tuesday January 29, 1750.

Tunis, January 3.

ON the 28th paſt a Dutch Ship, called the Mary Galley, was brought into this Port by one of our Corſairs. She was taken off Giorgenti, whither ſhe had been to take in a Loading of Corn for Malaga, and was ſeized under a Pretence of her not being furniſhed with a proper Paſs; but M. Hudſon, the Dutch Conſul, has ſince obtained the entire Reſtitution of her and her Cargo.

Revel, Jan. 8. The Troops quartered in this Neighbourhood, under the Command of General Lapuchin, are now compleat, and in very good Condition; they are ſo diſpoſed as to be able to form a conſiderable Army in a very ſhort Time; the Magazines for their Subſiſtance are abundantly ſupplied with all Neceſſaries, and they remain very quiet in their Quarters, neither is there the leaſt Appearance of their quitting them; ſo that the Report that has been lately ſpread of their having received Orders to hold themſelves in Readineſs to march on the firſt Notice, appears to be without the leaſt Foundation. On the 29th paſt, being her Imperial Majeſty's Birth Day, the ſame was celebrated here with great Magnificence. After Divine Service in the Morning we had a triple Diſcharge of the Artillery; at Noon General Lapuchin gave an elegant Entertainment to many Perſons of Diſtinction, and at Night great Part of this City was finely illuminated.

Petersbourg, Jan. 10. When the Empreſs declared M. Groſs, her late Miniſter at the Court of Berlin, to be one of her Council of State, ſhe annexed to it a Penſion of 2000 Rubles per Annum; and her Imperial Majeſty has ſince reſolved to employ him in the Department of Foreign Affairs.

Leghorn, Jan. 12. The Differences between the Regency of this Dutchy and the Republick of Lucca, are, as we are aſſured, in a fair Way of being amicably adjuſted, the Emperor, as Grand Duke of Tuſcany, having conſented that the Magiſtrates of Lucca ſhall go on with the Roads they are making over the Mountains, on certain Conditions, which 'tis not doubted but they will readily conſent to. A new Duty is laid upon all Sorts of Proviſions whatſoever coming into or going out of this Port. The Captain of a Malteſe Frigat, who arrived here within a few Days, reports, that three Spaniſh Men of War have taken two African Shebecks, having on board 377 Men, 68 Braſs Cannon, and 90,000 Piaſtres. We have received Advice, that a moſt violent Shock of an Earthquake had happened in the Iſland of St. Vincent in the Brazils, by which the Town of Santos, and Part of the Fortreſs of St. Vincent, had received very conſiderable Damage. A Ship from Alexandria is arrived here, the Maſter of which ſays, that the contagious Diſtemper, which lately raged in thoſe Parts, was entirely ceaſed.

Genoa, Jan. 15. The Regulation that has been ſettling for ſome Time paſt, in order to reform Luxury in this City, was publiſhed on the 6th Inſtant, and is to take Place on the firſt of March next. The Edict lately publiſhed concerning the Bank of St. George, is carried into Execution with all imaginable Succeſs, and the Duties eſtabliſhed in Favour of it, are raiſed without the leaſt Diſturbance. M. Chauvelin, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to this Republick, is ſet out from hence for Parma, where 'tis thought he will wait the Arrival of the Marqueſs de Cruſſol, who is coming thither to replace the late Count Maulevrier, in Quality of Miniſter from the Court of France.

Stockholm, Jan. 15. The laſt Advices from Finland ſay, that every Thing there remained in perfect Tranquillity. Baron Flemming, Envoy Extraordinary from this Court to that of Denmark, arrived here ſome Days ago from Copenhagen, and will ſet out again on his Return to that Court towards the End of this Month. The Prince Succeſſor, and the Princeſs his Spouſe, are gone to paſs a few Days at Ulrichſdahl.

Vienna, Jan. 20. The Funeral Service for the late Empreſs Dowager has been ſolemnized for three Days ſucceſſively in the Church of the Auguſtins. It began on the 17th, when his Imperial Majeſty, with the Princeſs Charlotte of Lorrain, and the whole Court, went thither and heard Prayers for the Dead, which were read by the Pope's Nuncio. On the 18th the Emperor went thither again, with moſt of the Imperial Family; when a Funeral Oration, on the Death of the Deceaſed, was pronounced by Father Tauſch, a Jeſuit; after which a grand Maſs was celebrated pontifically by the Pope's Nuncio; and Yeſterday his Imperial Majeſty and the Archduke Joſeph repaired again to the ſaid Church, and aſſiſted at Divine Service, which ended the Solemnity, all the Bells in this City and Suburbs having tolled almoſt the whole Time.

[Price Two-pence.]

Time. Her Imperial Majeſty not being able to attend theſe Services, on Account of her Pregnancy, aſſiſted at the uſual Prayers for the Dead, which were read in her own Apartment. The four Deputies from the Kingdom of Bohemia, who arrived here ſome Days ago, were admitted to an Audience of their Imperial Majeſties on Monday laſt.

Turin, Jan. 23. Yeſterday and the Day before two Meſſengers arrived here, one from Naples, and the other from Parma, with an Account of both the Queen and the Dutcheſs having been delivered of a Prince, which the Spaniſh Miniſter made known to this Court.

Copenhagen, Jan. 23. His Daniſh Majeſty returned hither laſt Thurſday, and there was Yeſterday a Council and Court as uſual. Orders are given to equip two Frigats, one of 40, and the other of 30 Guns, for the annual Exerciſe of the Cadets in the Sea Service. M. Hading, the Imperial Secretary, having delivered to the Daniſh Miniſters a Notification of the Death of the late Empreſs Dowager, this Court goes To-morrow into Mourning for three Weeks.

Dreſden, Jan. 23. Count Bellegarde ſet out from hence Yeſterday for Paris, in order to take Poſſeſſion of the Eſtate and Effects left him by the late Count Saxe. Count Roſenbourg, who is going to reſide at the Court of Denmark, in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary and Miniſter Plenipotentiary from their Imperial Majeſties, arrived here a few Days ago, and is ſince ſet forwards on his Journey to Copenhagen, after having been introduced to the King and all the Royal Family, and met with a moſt gracious Reception. On Sunday laſt, being the Anniverſary of his Majeſty's Coronation, the ſame was obſerved at Court with great Solemnity; on this Occaſion their Majeſties received the Compliments of all the Lords of the Court, the Nobility and Foreign Miniſters. The Princeſs Royal, and the young Prince of whom ſhe was lately delivered, are both extremely well. The Count de Loos, Ambaſſador from this Court to that of France, is on his Departure for Paris, from whence Marſhal Lowendahl is expected towards the End of this Month. The laſt Advices from Poland are very favourable, the Tribunal of Petrikaw continuing its Aſſembly with all the Succeſs that can be deſired; and the Frontiers of that Kingdom enjoying a perfect Tranquillity, by the efficacious Meaſures which have been taken to ſtop the Ravages and Cruelties committed by the Heyducks.

Munich, Jan. 23. The Cardinal Prince and Biſhop of Liege is ſo well recovered from his late Indiſpoſition, as to be able to appear in Publick as heretofore; and the Diverſions of the Court, which were ſtopt during his Illneſs, were Yeſterday permitted to go on again. M. Blondel, who reſided for ſome Time at the Imperial Court, in Quality of Miniſter from his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, is arrived here from Vienna, in order, as 'tis ſaid, to execute a private Commiſſion at this Court. The Princeſs, Spouſe of Duke Clement of Bavaria, is perfectly recovered from the Small Pox.

Berlin, Jan. 26. The Carnaval at this Place will end on Friday next, when his Pruſſian Majeſty will leave Berlin for the Winter, and return to Potzdam. Many Foreigners, who came here upon Account of the Diverſions of the Carnaval, have already left this Place, moſt of whom are gone to Dreſden, to enjoy the End of the Carnaval there. On Sunday laſt, being the King's Birth-day, who then entered into the 40th Year of his Age, the ſame was celebrated at Court with the uſual Magnificence. At Noon his Majeſty received the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Miniſters, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, and afterwards dined with the whole Royal Family at the Queen Mother's. On this Occaſion Baron Fouquée and Count Dohna were promoted to the Rank of Lieutenants General of Foot, and the Pregnancy of the Princeſs of Pruſſia was declared at Court; and on Friday next, being her Royal Highneſs's Birth-Day, there will be a Ball in Mask, and a great Supper at the Queen Mother's Court.

Hambourg, Jan. 26. Doctor Anderſon, one of the Secretaries to this Town, and Son to the late Burghermaſter of that Name, in whom this City loſt ſome Years ago a very worthy Magiſtrate, was made Choice of Yeſterday to ſupply the Place of Counſellor, which was become vacant in this Government by the Nomination of M. Schele to be one of the four Burghermaſters.

Frankfort, Jan. 29. We learn from Schramberg, a little Town in the County of Hohenberg, in the Black Foreſt, that a Fire broke out there a few Days ago in the Houſe of one of the Magiſtrates, which burnt with ſuch Violence, that it was impoſſible to put a Stop to it; that the Magiſtrate himſelf periſhed in the Flames; and that the whole Town, conſiſting of about 400 Houſes, was entirely reduced to Aſhes. It is aſſured that a Project is on Foot for adjuſting the Differences between the Magiſtrates of this City and the Proteſtants ſettled here, in Relation to the Requeſt made by the latter for Liberty to build a Church within the Walls of this City, by which the Proteſtants will have Leave to build one in the Suburbs; to which Project it is ſaid the Proteſtants have already given their Conſent.

Hague, Feb. 2. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland, who ſeparated laſt Saturday, are to re-aſſemble on the 17th Inſtant. M. Marfeld has taken the Oaths before the Council of State, in Quality of Colonel of a Regiment of Artillery; as has likewiſe Count Byland, Captain Lieutenant in the Regiment of Dragoon Guards, in Quality of Lieutenant Colonel. By Letters from Anſpach we hear, that his Serene Highneſs the Margrave, who has got the Small Pox, and which at firſt was imagined to be a very bad Sort, is ſo well recovered as to be out of Danger.

Paris, Feb. 3. Yeſterday was the Annual Ceremony of the Proceſſion of the Knights of the Holy Ghoſt; on which Occaſion a Chapter was held, and the Titles of Nobility of the Duke of Chaulnes and M. de Hautefort, whom his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty named to be Knights of that Order on New Year's Day, were produced and approved, and they were accordingly received.

Dublin,

Dublin, January 21.

Yeſterday being the Birth-day of his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, the Great Guns were fired in his Majeſty's Phœnix Park, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks: And this Day at Noon there was a ſplendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Perſons of Diſtinction at the Caſtle, to compliment the Lords Juſtices upon that Occaſion: And at Night there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies.
